Mark Scheme for November 2019

OCR (Oxford Cambridge and RSA) is a leading UK awarding body, providing a wide range of qualifications to meet the needs of candidates of all ages and abilities. OCR qualifications include AS/A Levels, Diplomas, GCSEs, Cambridge Nationals, Cambridge Technicals, Functional Skills, Key Skills, Entry Level qualifications, NVQs and vocational qualifications in areas such as IT, business, languages, teaching/training, administration and secretarial skills.

It is also responsible for developing new specifications to meet national requirements and the needs of students and teachers. OCR is a not-for-profit organisation; any surplus made is invested back into the establishment to help towards the development of qualifications and support, which keep pace with the changing needs of today's society.

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and students, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which marks were awarded by examiners. It does not indicate the details of the discussions which took place at an examiners' meeting before marking commenced.

All examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the published question papers and the report on the examination.

1. Subject-specific Marking Instructions

INTRODUCTION

Your first task as an Examiner is to become thoroughly familiar with the material on which the examination depends. This material includes:

- the specification, especially the assessment objectives
- the question paper and its rubrics
- the unseen texts
- the mark scheme.

You should ensure that you have copies of these materials.

You should ensure also that you are familiar with the administrative procedures related to the marking process. These are set out in the OCR booklet Instructions for Examiners. If you are examining for the first time, please read carefully Appendix 5 Introduction to Script Marking: Notes for New Examiners.

Please ask for help or guidance whenever you need it. Your first point of contact is your Team Leader.

Rubric Infringement

Candidates may infringe the rubric in the following way:

• answering two questions from Section B.

If a candidate has written two answers for Section B, mark both answers and award the highest mark achieved.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

Candidates are expected to demonstrate the following in the context of the content described:

AO1	Identify and interpret explicit and implicit information and ideas.  Select and synthesise evidence from different texts.
AO2	Explain, comment on and analyse how writers use language and structure to achieve effects and influence readers, using relevant subject terminology to support their views.
AO3	Compare writers' ideas and perspectives, as well as how these are conveyed, across two or more texts.
AO4	Evaluate texts critically and support this with appropriate textual references.
AO5	Communicate clearly, effectively and imaginatively, selecting and adapting tone, style and register for different forms, purposes and audiences.  Organise information and ideas, using structural and grammatical features to support coherence and cohesion of texts.
AO6	Candidates must use a range of vocabulary and sentence structures for clarity, purpose and effect, with accurate spelling and punctuation.

WEIGHTING OF ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

The relationship between the components and the assessment objectives of the scheme of assessment is shown in the following grid:

			% of GCSE (9–1)
	AO1	AO2	AO3	AO4	AO5	AO6	Total
J351/01 Communicating Information and Ideas	6.25	7.5	3.75	7.5	15	10	50%
J351/02 Exploring Effects and Impact	2.5	11.25	3.75	7.5	15	10	50%
Total	8.75	18.75	7.5	15	30	20	100%

USING THE MARK SCHEME

Please study this Mark Scheme carefully. The Mark Scheme is an integral part of the process that begins with the setting of the question paper and ends with the awarding of grades. Question papers and Mark Schemes are developed in association with each other so that issues of differentiation and positive achievement can be addressed from the very start.

This Mark Scheme is a working document; it is not exhaustive; it does not provide 'correct' answers. The Mark Scheme can only provide 'best guesses' about how the question will work out, and it is subject to revision after we have looked at a wide range of scripts.

The Examiners' Standardisation Meeting will ensure that the Mark Scheme covers the range of candidates' responses to the questions, and that all Examiners understand and apply the Mark Scheme in the same way. The Mark Scheme will be discussed and amended at the meeting, and administrative procedures will be confirmed. Co-ordination scripts will be issued at the meeting to exemplify aspects of candidates' responses and achievements; the co-ordination scripts then become part of this Mark Scheme.

Before the Standardisation Meeting, you should read and mark in pencil a number of scripts, in order to gain an impression of the range of responses and achievement that may be expected.

In your marking, you will encounter valid responses which are not covered by the Mark Scheme: these responses must be credited. You will encounter answers which fall outside the 'target range' of Level of Response Bands for the paper which you are marking. Please mark these answers according to the marking criteria.

Please read carefully all the scripts in your allocation and make every effort to look positively for achievement throughout the ability range. Always be prepared to use the full range of marks.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR EXAMINERS

- The co-ordination scripts provide you with examples of the standard of each band. The marks awarded for these scripts will have been agreed by the Team Leaders and will be discussed fully at the Examiners' Co-ordination Meeting.
- The specific task-related notes on each question will help you to understand how the band descriptors may be applied. However, these comments do not constitute the mark scheme. They are some thoughts on what was in the setter's mind when the question was formulated. It is hoped that candidates will respond to questions in a variety of ways and will give original and at times un expected interpretations of texts. Rigid demands for 'what must be a good answer' would lead to a distorted assessment.
- Candidates' answers must be relevant to the question. Beware of prepared answers that do not show the candidate's thought and which have not been adapted to the thrust of the question. Beware also of answers where candidates attempt to reproduce interpretations and concepts that they have been taught but have only partially understood.
- 4 Candidates' answers should demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the texts. This knowledge will be shown in the range and detail of their references to the text. Re-telling sections of the text without commentary is of little or no value.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINERS:

A INDIVIDUAL ANSWERS

- 1 The indicative content indicates the expected parameters for candidates' answers, but be prepared to recognise and credit unexpected approaches where they show relevance.
- Using 'best-fit', decide first which set of Level of Response Band Descriptors best describes the overall quality of the answer. Once the band is located, adjust the mark concentrating on features of the answer which make it stronger or weaker following the guide lines for refinement.
  - Highest mark: If clear evidence of all the qualities in the band descriptors is shown, the HIGHEST Mark should be awarded.
  - Lowest mark: If the answer shows the candidate to be borderline (i.e. they have achieved all the qualities of the bands below and show limited evidence of meeting the criteria of the band in question) the LOWEST mark should be awarded.
  - Middle mark: This mark should be used for candidates who are secure in the band. They are not 'borderline' but they have only achieved some of the qualities in the band descriptors.
- 3 Be prepared to use the full range of marks. Do not reserve (e.g.) high Level 6 marks 'in case' something turns up of a quality you have not yet seen. If an answer gives clear evidence of the qualities described in the band descriptors, reward appropriately.

- B TOTAL MARKS
- 1 Transfer the mark awarded to the front of the script.
- 2 The maximum mark for the paper is 80.

2	SKILLS: AO2: Explain, comment on and analyse how writers use language and structure to achieve effects and influence readers, using relevant subject terminology to support their views.  Level 6 (6 marks)  A skilled analysis which demonstrates a sophisticated appreciation of how the writer has used language and structure to achieve effects and influence the reader. Candidates' analysis of both language and structure is consistent and detailed. Precisely—selected and integrated subject terminology deployed to enhance the response.  Level 5 (5 marks)	6	Look again at lines 7-16.  How does Roald Dahl use language and structure to present his first impressions of the natural world here?  You should use relevant subject terminology to support your answer.  Give credit for answers that link aspects of language and structure with how they are used to describe his first impressions.  Give credit for accurate use of relevant terminology integrated into responses, which shows a precise understanding of features and their effect in this text.  Candidates must refer to the use of language and structure in their response. An imbalanced response, which does not achieve a reasonable balance between references to language and to structure, cannot achieve the higher levels.

Where the candidate's answer consistently meets the criteria, the higher mark should be awarded.  Level 6 (11–12 marks)  A skilled analysis which demonstrates a sophisticated appreciation of how the writer has used language and structure to achieve effects and influence the reader. Candidates' analysis of both language and structure is detailed and integrated. Precisely–selected and integrated subject terminology deployed to enhance the response.  Level 5 (9–10 marks)  An analysis which demonstrates a perceptive understanding of how the writer has used language and structure to achieve effects and influence the reader. Candidates' analysis of both language and structure is reasonably detailed and balanced. Well–chosen subject terminology integrated into explanations.	12	Look again at lines 9-26.  Explore how the writer uses language and structure to present the beauty and strangeness of this place.  Support your ideas by referring to the language and structure of this section, using relevant subject terminology.  Give credit for answers that link aspects of language and structure with how they are used to present the beauty and strangeness of the place, supported by close reference to the text.  Give credit for accurate use of relevant terminology integrated into responses, which shows a precise understanding of features and their effect in this text.  Candidates must refer to the use of language and structure in their response. An imbalanced response which does not achieve a reasonable balance between references to language and to structure cannot achieve the higher levels.  Candidates may refer to some of the following points:  • Structure through contrasting complex and compound sentences that capture his astonishment at the scene's beauty and increasing sense of strangeness  • Structure through language that sums up Jaffy's growing sense of strangeness — the place is 'foreignstrangeunknowndifferent' and he 'could make out

'Foreign' is repeated and the language he hears is 'strange', 'rasping' and 'shrill', adding a growing sense of the complexity of his experiences to his initial awe at the beauty of the place.</li> </ul>
	A straightforward commentary which shows some understanding of how the writer has used language and structure to achieve effects and influence the reader.     Candidates are likely to refer more fully to either language or structure and note some features without explaining the effects.     Some use of subject terminology, though it may not always be relevant.  Level 1 (1–2 marks)      A descriptive response which shows limited awareness of how the writer has used language and structure to achieve effects and influence the reader.

			Give credit for critical evaluation of 'how far' the candidate agrees with the statement that both texts present increasing fear in new surroundings. Accept all valid evaluations which are supported by appropriate, integrated references to both texts. For example, some candidates may consider one text presents landing after a sea journey as more pleasant than is described in the other text.  Candidates may evaluate these ideas in response to AO4:  Dahl's long complex compound sentence in the second paragraph ("We were anchored out" suggests the breathless response and the scale of the pleasantness of the new found land. Birch uses a string of short sentences ("I ran Faial Island") to capture Jaffy's pleasure and excitement. Birch conveys the sense of the pleasure Jaffy felt with the long list of food items – "They brought potatoeswooden cages" – ending with the comical metaphor of the fowls complaining. Dahl presents the pleasantness of the scene by his use of adjectives with pleasant associations ("amazingwonderful, beautiful and exciting") contrasted
